Pastor's Corner

Dear Brothers and Sisters,

This weekend, we celebrate the Tenth Sunday in Ordinary Time. It is important to remember as we begin again this season of Ordinary Time, that it is anything but “ordinary.”

The ordinary in Ordinary Time does not refer to a season of dull routine but rather the listing of ordinal, or sequential, numbers. This is what is meant by the Second Sunday in Ordinary Time, the Third Sunday in Ordinary Time, etc. (Interestingly, there is no First Sunday in Ordinary Time, because it is replaced by the Feast of the Baptism of the Lord.) Rather than making a statement about degrees of importance, the term Ordinary Time refers to the order of Sundays in the church year that do not fall into the major liturgical seasons of Advent, Christmas, Lent, or Easter.

The season of Ordinary Time consists of 33 or 34 weeks and is divided into two parts. The Roman Missal – Third Edition instructs that Ordinary Time “begins on the Monday following the Sunday after January 6 and continues until the beginning of Lent; it begins again on the Monday after Pentecost Sunday and ends on the Saturday before the First Sunday of Advent.” Prior to the liturgical reforms of the Second Vatican Council, these periods of Ordinary Time were referred to as “the season after Epiphany” and the “the season after Pentecost.” Although Ordinary Time takes place in two parts, it is still considered a single season.

It is easy to mistakenly think the liturgical year is about sanctifying time. The truth, however, is that the liturgical year is about growing in relationship with Jesus Christ. The richness of Ordinary Time is found in the opportunity to know Christ more intimately in the everyday realities of life.

The scripture proclaimed in Ordinary Time reveals the teaching and healing and mission of Christ, allowing us to better understand God who became human. We learn that Christ is about humility rather than pride, vulnerability rather than power. We learn that Christ is about including the excluded, eating with social and religious outcasts, and dismantling structures of sin and injustice. We learn that Christ is about self-giving love that is only possible through authentic relationship.

Ordinary Time is anything but monotonous. These are the days where we grow into who we are called to be by imitating the lived reality of Jesus. Allow this Season of Ordinary Time to be a season of transformation in your heart!

God bless,

Fr. Smith

The teachers of the law from Jerusalem didn't understand why the crowds gathered to hear Jesus teach.

Jesus'

and His FAMILY

Reflection on Mark 3:20-35

In these divisive and polarizing times, it is necessary to be reminded by this Gospel that we all belong to the family of Jesus: "Here are my mother and my brothers..." So often we let our political ideology, our liturgical preference, our perceived social standing, our economic reality, our views on immigration, our personal agenda, keep us from embracing all in our church and communities as our brothers and sisters.

The Eucharist, both meal and sacrifice, is a celebration of our unity, a unity that is far greater than anything that divides us. Even more than a celebration of unity, it is a call to unity, empowering us to extend love to the whole family of Christ, giving us the mission of being peace and harmony in our portion of the world.

Some of the key principles of our Catholic Social Teachings include the inherent worth and dignity of every human person, the call to family, community and participation, and options for the poor and vulnerable. All of these become our work, our mission, through our participation in the Eucharist. This work is also expressed in the truth of the integration of knowledge and action as the basis of wisdom, which springs from our Catholic Intellectual Tradition.

SAINT EPHREM

Saint of the Day: June 9

Patron Saint of: Spiritual Leaders/Directors

Poet, teacher, orator, and defender of the faith, Ephrem took upon himself the special task of opposing the many false doctrines rampant in his time, always remaining a true and forceful defender of the Catholic Church.

Born in Nisibis, Mesopotamia, he was baptized as a young man and became famous as a teacher in his native city. When the Christian emperor had to cede Nisibis to the Persians, Ephrem fled as a refugee to Edessa, along with many other Christians. He is credited with attracting great glory to the biblical school there.

He had a prolific pen, and his writings best illumine his holiness. Although he was not a man of great scholarship, his works reflect deep insight and knowledge of the Scriptures. In writing about the mysteries of humanity's redemption, Ephrem reveals a realistic and humanly sympathetic spirit and a great devotion to the humanity of Jesus.

It is surprising to read that he wrote hymns against the heretics of his day. He would take the popular songs of the heretical groups and, using their melodies, compose beautiful hymns embodying orthodox doctrine. Ephrem became one of the first to introduce song into the Church's public worship as a means of instruction for the faithful. His many hymns have earned him the title "Harp of the Holy Spirit."

Ephrem preferred a simple, austere life, living in a small cave overlooking the city of Edessa. It was here that he died around 373.

Many Catholics still find singing in church a problem, probably because of the rather individualistic piety that they inherited. Yet singing has been a tradition of both the Old and the New Testaments. It is an excellent way of expressing and creating a community spirit of unity as well as of joy. An ancient historian testifies that Ephrem's hymns "lent luster to the Christian assemblies."
