Shepherd's Column

My Brothers and Sisters in Christ,

Celebrated annually on October 7th, Our Lady of the Rosary holds immense significance as a title for the Virgin Mary, emphasizing her role as a guiding and interceding figure for the faithful through the practice of the Rosary. This devotion has its origins in the 13th century, when St. Dominic received the Rosary as a profound tool for prayer and evangelization.

The practice of praying the Rosary holds immense power in fostering contemplative and meditative prayer. One of its most profound aspects lies in its meditative quality. Each decade of the Rosary invites us to contemplate a specific mystery – joyful, sorrowful, glorious, or luminous – of Christ's life. These mysteries facilitate a deeper comprehension of Christ's teachings and personal reflection, enabling us to establish a profound connection with our own life experiences. As one meditates on these events, the Rosary transforms into a transformative journey of faith, inviting us on Earth to draw closer to Heaven.

In an era often characterized by chaos and uncertainty, the Rosary offers a sanctuary of peace. The rhythmic nature of praying the Rosary exerts a calming effect, assisting individuals in centering their thoughts and emotions. We should find solace in reciting the Rosary during moments of distress, drawing strength and comfort from its profound teachings. It serves as a reminder that we are not alone, reinforcing the reality of God's omnipresence and love.

Integrating the Rosary into daily life cultivates a broader commitment to prayer. It serves as a gentle reminder to pause, reflect, and engage in communion with the Sacred Mysteries. Praying a regular Rosary can lead to a more robust spiritual life, inspiring us to explore alternative forms of prayer and deepen our understanding of faith.

I encourage you to dedicate some time this week to contemplate the life of the Lord through the eyes of His cherished mother. By joining in her prayers through the profound practice of the Rosary, you may experience a profound connection with the divine. May God bless you on your spiritual journey.

In Christ,

Fr. PJ Brandimarti

God Creates the First Woman

God brought all the animals and birds to the man to see what he would name them. And whatever Adam called each creature, that was its name.

RELATIONSHIPS

Reflection on Mark 10:2-12

If we focus only on the question of divorce in these readings, we will miss the expansive truth and beauty they would unfold for us. The Genesis story places man and woman in a world of wonder, vulnerability, respect, and intimacy – both human and divine. Jesus draws His disciples back to this truth of God’s intended creation, where God Himself has entered into the cherished marriage partnership of man and woman, where the “three” become one!

Relationships in general, and the marriage relationship in particular, are too complex and rich and difficult and life-giving and holy to attempt to use this Gospel passage alone to portray the faithfulness to which God calls each of us. We are created to be in relationship. Whether we are single or married, divorced or remarried, all of us must live and grow through intimate and nourishing relationships to be fully human.

This is our blessedness, and just as Jesus welcomed the little children in His embrace, so He gathers each of us, whatever our past, into His presence and into relationships with others, to strengthen us.

– Fr. Jay

SAINT JOHN XXIII

Saint of the Day: October 11

Patron Saint of: Papal Delegates and the Second Vatican Council

The firstborn son of a farming family in Sotto il Monte, Angelo Giuseppe Roncalli was always proud of his down-to-earth roots. In Bergamo’s diocesan seminary, he joined the Secular Franciscan Order. After his ordination in 1904, Fr. Roncalli returned to Rome for canon law studies. He soon worked as his bishop’s secretary, Church history teacher in the seminary, and as publisher of the diocesan paper.

In 1925, he became a papal diplomat, serving first in Bulgaria, then in Turkey, and finally in France. During World War II, with the help of Germany’s ambassador to Turkey, Archbishop Roncalli helped save an estimated 24,000 Jewish people.

Named a cardinal and appointed patriarch of Venice in 1953, he was finally a residential bishop. A month short of entering his 78th year, Cardinal Roncalli was elected pope, taking the name John after his father and the two patrons of Rome’s cathedral, St. John Lateran. Pope John took his work very seriously but not himself. His wit soon became proverbial, and he began meeting with political and religious leaders from around the world. Pope John XXIII enlarged the membership in the College of Cardinals and made it more international. At his address at the opening of the Second Vatican Council, he criticized the “prophets of doom” who “in these modern times see nothing but prevarication and ruin.”

On his deathbed, Pope John said: “It is not that the Gospel has changed; it is that we have begun to understand it better. Those who have lived as long as I have...were enabled to compare different cultures and traditions, and know that the moment has come to discern the signs of the times, to seize the opportunity and to look far ahead.”

“Good Pope John” died on June 3, 1963. St. John Paul II beatified him in 2000, and Pope Francis canonized him in 2014.
